John Doe v. Cigna, et. al., 15-cv-60894-DPG

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

This Settlement Agreement and Release ("Agreement") is made and entered into on this 8th day of October 2015, by and between Defendants Cigna Health and Life Insurance Company, a Connecticut corporation, Tel-Drug, Inc. and Tel-Drug of Pennsylvania, LLC, on behalf of themselves and their Affiliates (collectively "Cigna"), and Plaintiff John Doe[1] ("Plaintiff"). Cigna and Plaintiff are collectively referred to herein as the "Parties."

WHEREAS, Plaintiff is the beneficiary of a self-funded Employee Health Benefit Plan (the "Plan") provided by his employer;

WHEREAS, under the Plan, refills of specialty medications, including HIV/AIDS Medications, must be obtained via mail order from a designated Specialty Home Delivery Pharmacy in order to be eligible for in-network coverage;

WHEREAS, Cigna is obligated to administer claims for benefits under the Plan in accordance with the Plan's terms and conditions;

WHEREAS, in order for refills of HIV/AIDS Medications to be eligible for in-network coverage, the Plan requires Plaintiff to obtain the refills via mail order from the Plan's designated Specialty Home Delivery Pharmacy;

WHEREAS, on April 27, 2015, Plaintiff John Doe, individually and on behalf of a putative class, filed a Complaint in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida against Cigna captioned, Doe v. Cigna Health and Life Insurance Company, et al., Case No. 15-cv-60894 (S.D. Fla.) (the "Lawsuit"), alleging that the requirement to obtain refills for

[1] John Doe's true identity has been disclosed to Cigna pursuant to a confidentiality agreement, and John Doe has signed a copy of this Agreement in his legal name and that signature page has been provided to Cigna.

prescriptions for HIV/AIDS medications via mail order violates certain provisions of, inter alia, the Affordable Care Act, Employee Retirement Income and Security Act, and the Americans with Disabilities Act;

WHEREAS, Cigna denies any wrongdoing or liability whatsoever with respect to the Lawsuit and any and all allegations made therein;

WHEREAS, the Parties now wish to resolve the Lawsuit and any and all allegations therein;

WHEREAS, Plaintiff has been fully advised by his counsel Whatley Kallas, LLP, Consumer Watchdog, and Podhurst Orseck, P.A. (collectively, "Plaintiff's Counsel") as to the terms and effects of this Agreement, including the nature of the claims released, the potential for success if the Lawsuit was to be litigated to its conclusion and the relief obtained by the settlement;

WHEREAS, in evaluating the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, Plaintiff's Counsel have concluded that the benefits provided under this Agreement make a settlement with Cigna pursuant to such terms and conditions reasonable when weighed against likely delays in obtaining the relief provided for herein for Members and putative class members, the uncertainties and complexities of litigation, the legal and factual defenses that have been or could be asserted by Cigna, and the expense and length of time necessary to prosecute the Lawsuit through trial;

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to settle all claims by Plaintiff that are being or could have been asserted in the Lawsuit based on the allegations in the operative Complaint on file therein;

WHEREAS, the Parties, through their respective counsel, have engaged in arm's-length negotiations in reaching this Agreement, including informally exchanging relevant information;

WHEREAS, the Parties, and their respective counsel, believe that the terms of the settlement set forth in this Agreement are fair, reasonable, and adequate; and

WHEREAS, the Parties desire and intend to effectuate the dismissal of the Lawsuit with prejudice consistent with the terms set forth in this Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE, each of the Parties, for and in consideration of the mutual covenants, promises and agreements contained herein, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

Such a dismissal shall be without prejudice to the claims of any Member as defined in this Agreement other than Plaintiff.

4. No Admission of Liability. This Agreement constitutes a settlement of the Released Claims and, together with all negotiations, documents, statements, transactions and proceedings in connection therewith, shall not be deemed to be or construed as an admission or acknowledgement by any Party of any liability or of any improper action whatsoever.

5. Cigna's Prospective Changes.

a. Modification of the Exclusive Specialty Pharmacy Home Delivery List

Within sixty (60) days of the Effective Date of this Agreement, Cigna will remove all HIV/AIDS Medications, with the exception of Fuzeon, from the Exclusive Specialty Pharmacy Home Delivery List. For the avoidance of doubt, a complete list of the HIV/AIDS Medications that will be removed from the Exclusive Specialty Pharmacy Home Delivery List is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

b. Notice

Cigna will provide notice to Members of the modification of the Exclusive Specialty Pharmacy Home Delivery List described in paragraph 5(a) above via letter to be sent by United States Postal Service, or other method of communication that is compliant with HIPAA and any other applicable laws and authorized by the applicable terms and conditions of the affected Cigna Plans for such modifications, within sixty (60) days of the Effective Date of this Agreement. A true and accurate copy of the form of the communication to be sent to Members is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

c. Filling Prescriptions

Cigna will not remove an in-network retail pharmacy from Cigna's retail pharmacy network or otherwise penalize an in-network retail pharmacy because such a pharmacy dispenses HIV/AIDS Medications to a Member.

d. Cost and Expenses of Modification

All costs and expenses associated with making the modification described in Sections 5 (a) and (b) of this Agreement shall be paid or borne by Cigna.

e. Other Cigna Rights

i. Future Modifications of Exclusive Home Delivery List for New-to-Market HIV/AIDS Medications That are Limited Distribution Drugs

The Parties recognize that advances in medicine may result in the introduction of new antiretroviral medications to treat HIV/AIDS after the Effective Date of this Agreement. The Parties agree that Cigna will not include on Cigna's Exclusive Specialty Pharmacy Home Delivery List any new-to-market antiretroviral HIV/AIDS medications unless such medications are Limited Distribution Drugs. Cigna agrees that it will not add back any of the HIV/AIDS

Medications on Exhibit A hereto or add any new-to-market antiretroviral HIV/AIDS medications that are not Limited Distribution Drugs onto the Exclusive Specialty Pharmacy Home Delivery List for any Cigna Plan in the future unless there is a material change in law or regulation that authorizes mandatory mail delivery of antiretroviral HIV/AIDS medications.

ii. Effect of Settlement on Cigna Plans Post-Change of Control

The terms of this Agreement shall continue to remain in full force and effect as to any Cigna Plan that continues to exist as a Cigna Plan following any change of control in the ownership of Cigna.

iii. Control of Formulary

Cigna retains the absolute right and sole discretion, subject to applicable law, to control the formularies for its various plans. Nothing in this Agreement shall impact Cigna's ability to place medications, including HIV/AIDS Medications, into various classes or tiers of its formularies or impact Cigna's ability to establish the cost-shares applicable to such tiers in accordance with applicable law, so long as doing so is not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement and further provided that such modifications do not materially alter or reduce the benefits and rights of Members under the terms of this Agreement.

iv. Cigna's Right to Incentivize Use of Home Delivery Services

Nothing herein shall be construed to restrict or prohibit Cigna from promoting any services provided by a Specialty Home Delivery Pharmacy to Members, including offering Members incentives to utilize a Specialty Home Delivery Pharmacy, so long as such communications are consistent with the communication set forth in Exhibit B hereto.

6. Payments to Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel's Attorneys' Fees and Expenses.

a. Payment to Plaintiff

Within thirty (30) days after the Effective Date of this Agreement, Cigna will pay Plaintiff ten thousand dollars ($10,000) as consideration for the dismissal of the Lawsuit, and to compensate Plaintiff for any costs and expenses he may have incurred as a result of bringing this Lawsuit. At least fourteen (14) days in advance thereof, Plaintiff's Counsel shall provide Cigna with specific instructions on how such payment is to be made to the client trust account of Whatley Kallas LLP.

b. Payment of Attorneys' Fees and Expenses

Within thirty (30) days after the Effective Date of this Agreement, in consideration for entering into the terms of this Agreement and the releases provided for herein, Cigna agrees to pay Plaintiff's Counsel collectively three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000). At least fourteen (14) days in advance thereof, Plaintiff's Counsel shall provide Cigna with specific instructions on how such payment is to be made. Plaintiff's Counsel shall allocate such attorneys' fees and expenses among themselves in a manner that, in their sole discretion, reflects the respective contributions of Plaintiff's Counsel to the results achieved in this matter. The Parties represent that their negotiation of, and agreement to the foregoing amounts did not occur until after the substantive terms of the Agreement had been negotiated and agreed. Both Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel agree that they will not seek additional attorneys' fees, expenses or incentive awards or any other form of compensation from the Released Parties as to the Released Claims or the resolution of the Lawsuit.

c. Individual Requests for Reimbursement

Any Member may submit proof of entitlement to reimbursement of Out-of-Pocket Costs, which shall be considered by Cigna on a case-by-case basis. For purposes of this Section, "Out-of-Pocket Costs" means the difference between (i) what the Member actually paid for a refill of a prescription for an HIV/AIDS Medication at a retail pharmacy and (ii) what the Member would have paid had the member obtained the prescription from a designated Specialty Home Delivery Pharmacy; except that "Out-of-Pocket Costs" shall not include any co-pay or co-insurance requirements under the applicable Cigna Plan. The communication to Members attached hereto as Exhibit B shall advise Members of the process established for seeking reimbursement of Out-of-Pocket Costs, and the requirements for doing so, including that such claims for reimbursement must be submitted by December 31, 2015. No later than February 28, 2016, Cigna will provide Plaintiff's Counsel with an accounting of all claims submitted to Cigna, all claims accepted and rejected by Cigna, and all claims paid by Cigna. Any Member who resolves a request for reimbursement with Cigna under this subsection will be required to provide a release in favor of the Released Parties.

7. Releases, Waiver, Covenant Not to Sue, Effect of Agreement.

a. By Plaintiff

As of the Effective Date of this Agreement, and in consideration of this Agreement, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and his Agents (but expressly not on behalf of any Member as defined in this Agreement except himself, or any putative class member as defined in the operative Complaint), does fully release and forever discharge the Released Parties from the Released Claims. Plaintiff further fully releases and forever discharges the Released Parties and their counsel from any claims arising out of the investigation, filing, defense, or resolution of the Lawsuit. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and his Agents, hereby covenants that he shall not file any suit involving any Released Claims.

b. By Cigna

As of the effective date of this Agreement, and in consideration of this Agreement, Cigna, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, does fully release and forever discharge Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel from any claims arising out of the investigation, publication, filing, prosecution or resolution of the Lawsuit, and hereby covenant that they shall not take any adverse action against Plaintiff or Plaintiff's Counsel in response to or in retaliation to the filing of the Lawsuit or any publicity in connection therewith, or as a result of entering this Agreement or, provided Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel have not breached Paragraph 9 below, any publicity in connection therewith.

c. Assumption of Risk

The Parties understand that if any fact relating to any matter covered by this Agreement is later found to be other than, or different from the facts now believed by them to be true, they expressly accept and assume the risk of such possible differences in fact and agree and acknowledge that this Agreement shall nevertheless remain fully binding and effective.

d. Effect of Agreement

This Agreement may be pleaded as a full and complete defense to, and may be used as the basis for a temporary restraining order or preliminary or permanent injunction against any action, suit, or other proceeding, which has been or may be instituted, prosecuted, continued, to be prosecuted, or attempted, asserting any claim released by this Agreement.

8. Best Efforts of Parties. The parties agree to undertake their Best Efforts to effectuate the settlement described in this Agreement. The parties further represent, agree and acknowledge that the settlement reflected in this Agreement is a fair resolution of these claims for the Parties.

9. Non-Disparagement. Each Party agrees that it shall not, directly or indirectly, at any time, make any disparaging remark to a party, either orally or in writing, concerning the terms of this Agreement. However, nothing in this Settlement Agreement is intended to or shall be interpreted to restrict either Party's rights and/or obligations: (i) to testify truthfully in any legal forum; or (ii) to cooperate with or provide information to any government agency or commission if contacted by such government agency or commission for information. Nothing in this Paragraph shall be interpreted as limiting either Party's right to seek further damages or legal relief in the event of a breach.

10. Governing Law; Jurisdiction. It is understood and agreed by the Parties that this Agreement shall be governed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida without giving effect to applicable choice of law principles. Any disputes concerning the meaning, interpretation, or enforcement of this Agreement shall be resolved by the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida, which shall be the exclusive trial (non-jury) forum for all proceedings involving or arising out of this Settlement Agreement. Any person who is directly and adversely impacted by any breach of the provisions of Section 5 of this Settlement Agreement shall be considered to be an intended third-party beneficiary of this Agreement with respect to his/her own rights, but not those of any other person.

11. Entire and Binding Nature of Agreement. This Agreement shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties, and supersedes and replaces any prior agreements and understandings, whether oral or written, between and among them, with respect to such matters. This Agreement shall benefit and bind the Parties, as well as their Agents and Affiliates.

12. Severability. If it is determined by any court of competent jurisdiction that any provision hereof is unlawful or unenforceable, the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect.

13. No Assignment. The Parties each represent and warrant that they have not assigned, transferred or purported to assign or transfer, in whole or in part, any interest in any of the rights and claims that are the subject of this Agreement.

14. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in separate counterparts, each of which, when executed, shall be considered an original, and all of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same instrument or agreement.

15. Additional Documents. The undersigned shall deliver and execute such further instruments and agreements as may be necessary to effectuate the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

16. Advice of Counsel. Each of the Parties has had the benefit of the advice of counsel in the negotiation, drafting, and execution of this Agreement, and the language in all parts of this Agreement is the product of the efforts of such counsel. Accordingly, neither this entire Agreement, nor any specific provision within the Agreement, shall be deemed to have been proposed or drafted by any Party or construed against any Party on that alleged basis. This Agreement shall be construed as a whole, according to its plain meaning.

17. Notices. All notices and other communications between the Parties referenced in this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be served by overnight mail and by email addressed to the Parties' counsel at their respective addresses set forth below:

Re: IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR SPECIALTY MEDICATIONS

Dear <First name>,

Starting December 1, 2015 [January 1, 2016 for individual and small group plans], refills of the antiretroviral HIV/AIDS medications on the attached list will be available at the in-network cost-share under your benefit plan, whether they are refilled at an in-network retail pharmacy or by mail through Cigna Specialty Pharmacy. Until now, these medications needed to be refilled through Cigna Specialty Pharmacy by mail to be covered by Cigna.

Customers now have a choice on where to refill their antiretroviral HIV/AIDS medications (other than Fuzeon): either at an in-network retail pharmacy or by mail through the Cigna Specialty Pharmacy. Please call [xxx-xxx-xxxx] if you would like more information about your coverage.

If a customer was required to refill an antiretroviral HIV/AIDS medication by mail through Cigna Specialty Pharmacy but used a retail pharmacy instead, he or she may request reimbursement of certain "out-of-pocket" costs. The reimbursement would equal what was actually paid for the medication minus what would have been paid if the prescription had been refilled through Cigna Specialty Pharmacy. Reimbursable out-of-pocket costs would not include any copayment, coinsurance, or deductible amount required to be paid under the terms of the Plan.

Requests for reimbursement of "out-of-pocket" costs must be received no later than December 31, 2015. A customer seeking reimbursement must submit receipts or other records of payment supporting the claim, including but not limited to credit card payment records or other evidence of payments made to a pharmacist, to Cigna at [Address]. Once we review the proof of payment, we will determine the total amount of "out-of-pocket" costs to be reimbursed.

If you have any questions, please call [xxx-xxx-xxxx]. We're here to help.

Sincerely,
